

Gibson-Thomas Engineering Co., Inc. is looking to recruit a GIS Technician for a full-time permanent position to join our GIS department based in Latrobe, PA. Must be proficient in all types of ESRI software, Trimble GPS equipment, and some knowledge of AutoCAD or Carlson would be preferred.

The GIS department consults directly with our municipal authority clients and must be able to report all GIS data to those clients in a way that helps them utilize the GIS data in their day to day activities.

Experience:

B.A. in Geographic Information Systems

ESRI Software version 10.x products. Including Basic, Standard, and Advanced

Knowledge of geodatabases and database creation in ArcCatalog

Experience in ArcGIS Pro and integration with ArcGIS Online

Knowledge of ArcGIS Online

Strong map mapping skills

Experience with field data collection utilizing Trimble GPS Equipment

Experience in post processing GPS data

Strong Excel experience

Ability and desire to take work independently when needed

Employee Benefits:

Gibson-Thomas Engineering Co., Inc. offers a complete benefits package which includes health care, dental, vision, long-term disability, 401K, and life insurance.

Salary will be negotiated base on experience.

Submit resume to:

Gibson-Thomas Engineering Co., Inc.

Attention Matt Sprung

1004 Ligonier Street

Latrobe, PA 15650

Or via email matt.sprung@gibson-thomas.com